

2 Impaired Drivers Arrested During Long Weekend March 29 - April 01, 2024

Written by Matt Weir | April 1, 2024 at 05:05:pm

24-2181

On Saturday, March 30, 2024, at approximately 7:33 p.m., the Saint John Police responded to a report of a vehicle stalled in the middle of an intersection in the 200-block of Rothesay Avenue. A 28-year-old woman was arrested for impaired driving. She was later released from custody to appear in court on a later date.

24-2183

On Saturday, March 30, 2024, at approximately 8:15 p.m., a member of the Saint John Police Force Patrol Services Division observed a vehicle driving with no lights on. The vehicle was seen travelling east on Fairville Blvd and a traffic stop was initiated. A 49-year-old man was found operating the motor vehicle. A roadside sobriety test was conducted. As a result of the test his license was suspended for 7 days.

24-2206

On Monday, April 01, 2024, at approximately 2:58 a.m., the Saint John Police Force responded vehicle pulled over on the side of Highway 1 near exit 119. Police quickly arrived on scene and took a 40-year-old woman into custody for impaired driving. She was later released from custody to appear in court on a later date.

The Saint John Police Force would like to remind the public that operating a motor vehicle while impaired is dangerous. It is essential to prioritize safety and make responsible choices to protect yourself and others on the road. If you plan to drink or engage in activities that may impair your ability to drive safely, you should arrange to have alternative transportation. Your safety and the safety of others depends on it.

The Saint John Police Force would like to thank the public for their assistance.

For more news, visit Saint John Police Force | City of Saint John, New Brunswick