On Saturday, June 01, 2024, at approximately 6:53 a.m., police responded to multiple driving complaints in relation to a vehicle that was driving on its rims in the area of Westmorland Road. The vehicle was located, and a 62-year-old man was taken into custody for impaired operation of a motor vehicle. He was brought to the police station to provide a breath sample and refused. He was charged with refusing to provide a breath sample and released from custody to appear in court on a later date.

24-3872

On Sunday, June 02, 2024, at approximately 7:43 p.m., police responded to a report of an impaired driver in the 4200-block of Loch Lomond Road. The vehicle was located on St Martins Road as multiple officers responded to the area. A traffic stop was initiated by officers and the driver of the vehicle provided a roadside breath test. The 33-year-old man was arrested for impaired driving and brought to the station to provide further samples. He was later released from custody to appear on court on a later date.

The Saint John Police Force would like to remind the public that operating a motor vehicle while impaired is dangerous. It is essential to prioritize safety and make responsible choices to protect yourself and others on the road. If you plan to drink or engage in activities that may impair your ability to drive safely, you should arrange to have alternative transportation. Your safety and the safety of others depends on it.

The Saint John Police Force would like to thank the public for their assistance.
