

(Arrest) Canada-wide Warrant

Written by Matt Weir | November 25, 2024 at 01:34:pm

File: 24-8758

The Saint John Police Street Crime Integrated Enforcement Unit has arrested a 40-year-old man on a Canada-wide warrant issued for being unlawfully at large.

It is reported that:

On March 11, 2024, a warrant was issued for breaching the conditions of his statutory release by failing to return to a halfway house in Truro, Nova Scotia.

The Street Crime Integrated Enforcement Officers located the man in the Crescent Valley area of Saint John and took him into custody without incident.

The accused remains in custody.

For more news, visit Saint John Police Force | City of Saint John, New Brunswick