

(Arrest) Canada-wide Warrant

Written by Matt Weir | September 24, 2024 at 02:41:pm

File: 24-7203

The Saint John Police has arrested a 31-year-old man on a Canada-wide warrant issued for being unlawfully at large.

It is reported that:

On September 24, 2024, a warrant was issued for breaching the conditions of his statutory release. It is alleged that he failed to remain at the Community Correctional Facility.

Saint John Police Patrol Officers located the man near an uptown encampment and took him into custody without incident.

The accused remains in custody.

The Saint John Police would like to thank the public for their assistance.

For more news, visit Saint John Police Force | City of Saint John, New Brunswick