The Saint John Police have arrested a 26-year-old man in connection with an assault investigation.

It is alleged that:

On Friday, October 18, 2024, at approximately 2:27 p.m., a 57-year-old man was allegedly assaulted in the 100-block area of Waterloo Street.

On arrival, emergency crews located the 57-year-old man who was suffering from a head injury. He was treated for his injuries at the scene by paramedics.

As a result of an investigation conducted by the Saint John Police, the suspect was identified as a 26-year-old man who had left the scene in a black 4-door car. The vehicle and suspect were located a short time later in the area. The suspect was taken into custody following a short pursuit.

The accused was charged with assault causing bodily harm, threats, impaired driving, and driving while prohibited. He was released from custody on an undertaking to appear in court on January 14, 2025.
