The Saint John Police have arrested a 46-year-old man following a residential break and enter.

It is reported that:

On Monday, April 08, 2024, at approximately 12:37 a.m., police responded to a report of a man breaking into an apartment in the 70-block of Wright Street.

It was alleged that the suspect had gained access to the residence by breaking the knob off the front door.

Police quickly responded and surrounded the location. A 46-year-old man was taken into custody at the scene after being located by police hiding in a bed under the blankets.

Details in relation to the break and enter are still under investigation. However, the accused was charged with being at large while on a release order.

The accused was held in custody and scheduled to appear on court on Monday, April 08, 2024.

The Saint John Police would like to thank the public for their assistance.
