The Saint John Police has arrested a 38-year-old man for multiple theft and fail to appear investigations.

It is reported that:

On Thursday, May 30, 2024, an off-duty Saint John Police Officer recognized a 38-year-old man in the 700-block of Manawagonish Road.

The man was wanted for several outstanding charges including Theft, Fail to Appear and Assault PO. While the member maintained visual on the suspect, he contacted other on-duty officers to make their way to the area.

While waiting for additional police officers to arrive the suspect spotted the off-duty member and attempted to flee. A brief struggle ensued, and the suspect was taken into custody with the assistance of additional officers who arrived on scene.

He was held in custody and is scheduled to appear in court on Friday, May 31, 2024.
