On September 25, 2024, Saint John Police received information from the London Police Service that a 30-year-old woman wanted for accessory after the fact to murder might be in the Saint John area.

A Canada wide warrant was issued for the female. Following an investigation by members of the Street Crime Integrated Enforcement Unit, the suspect was confirmed to have been sighted in the 100-block of St. George Street.

On September 27, 2024, members of the Street Crime Integrated Enforcement Unit took the female into custody in the Mcallister Drive area without further incident.

The accused appeared in court and was remanded. She was subsequently transferred to the custody of the London Police Service.

The Integrated Enforcement Unit (I.E.U.) currently consists of officers from the Saint John Police, Kennebecasis Regional Police Force, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and New Brunswick Justice and Public Safety.

Together a safe, secure, healthy community
