The Saint John Police have made arrests in relation to a break and enter investigation in the south end of Saint John.

It is alleged that:

On Monday, September 22, 2025, at approximately 04:20 a.m. police responded to a call of a possible break and enter in the 19-block of Harding Street in Saint John. Two male parties were seen trying to make entry to a building that was under construction.

Police arrived a short time after being dispatched and located a 33-year-old male and a 40-year-old male inside of the building. The individuals were taken into custody without incident.

The males were charged with break and enter and possession of break-in instruments. They were both held in custody and will appear in Court on September 25, 2025, at 9:30 a.m. for a bail hearing.

Together a safe, secure, healthy community
