On Tuesday, October 29, 2024, at approximately 12:17 p.m., police responded to the 100-block of Adelaide Street for a motor vehicle collision.

It is reported that:

A white Cadillac sedan seen travelling south had collided with a black Volkswagen Jetta in the 100-block of Adelaide Street. The driver of the Jetta was sitting parked in their vehicle during the collision but was not injured.

The Cadillac continued to travel towards Main Street colliding with an unoccupied blue Mazda 3 also parked in the 100-block of Adelaide Street.

It was later reported that a red Mazda 5 also parked and unoccupied in the same area was damaged.

The driver of the Cadillac was described as an older Caucasian man with a white beard and white hair. The Cadillac sustained damage to the passenger side of the vehicle, including a broken cover on the passenger side mirror.

Police are appealing for witnesses or anyone in the area that has video footage of the incident at the time it occurred.
