

Police seek public assistance in two property crime investigations that could be connected

Written by Sean Rocca | March 15, 2024 at 03:18:pm

File#: 24-1658, 1681

The Saint John Police Major Crime Unit are currently investigating two property crime incidents that occurred in the Loch Lomond Road area in East Saint John.

It is alleged that:

24-1658

On March 10, 2024, at approximately 3:26 a.m., property was stolen from a number of vehicles parked at a commercial site in the 200 block of St Martins Road. One of the vehicles was significantly damaged during this incident.

Surveillance video shows a suspect that appears to be wearing dark colored pants and a jacket with reflective material on it. There appears to be a blue hooded sweater underneath the jacket with the hood pulled up over the suspect's head.

24-1681

On March 10, 2024, at approximately 3:43 a.m., several sheds had been broken into at a property located in the 4000 block of Loch Lomond Road. Surveillance shows a dark colored SUV parked behind the property and the suspect appears to be wearing dark colored clothing with reflective material on the jacket.

The Major Crime Unit are investigating. Detectives believe that these incidents are connected due to the proximity and timing of the crimes as well as the description of the suspect who appears on the video surveillance.

If you can identify the suspect in the photographs or, anyone with information is asked to contact the Saint John Police Force at 1-506-648-3333, or if you wish to remain anonymous, contact Crimestoppers at 1-800-222-8477 or 1-800-222-T.I.P.S.

