

Saint John Police Inclusion and Diversity Recruitment Camp - May 23, 2024

Written by Sean Rocca | February 14, 2024 at 09:24:am

“The difference between who you are today and being a Difference Maker is only separated by the unknown”

The Saint John Police are proud to announce the launch of our inaugural Inclusion and Diversity Recruitment Camp, an innovative initiative aimed at providing underrepresented community members such as women and visible minorities with an inspiring opportunity to explore a career in policing.

The Recruitment Camp, to be held on Thursday, May 23, 2024, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the Saint John Police Headquarters, will offer participants a unique insight into the many rewarding opportunities available within the Saint John Police.

Through a series of engaging and interactive sessions, attendees will have the chance to interact with current officers, learn about the various roles and responsibilities within the Saint John Police, and gain hands-on experience in policing.

“We are excited to launch the Inclusion and Diversity Recruitment Camp as part of our ongoing commitment to fostering a police delivery model that reflects the diversity of the communities we serve,” said Chief Robert M. Bruce. “By providing an inclusive platform for underrepresented individuals to explore policing careers, we aim to create a stronger, more representative police service that can better address the needs of our diverse community.”

For more information, including the camp syllabus, and to apply, please visit: Inclusion and Diversity Recruitment Camp | Saint John Police Force