The Saint John Police Major Crime Unit, in cooperation with the Coroner's Office, are investigating three sudden deaths following a call for service to a residence located in the lower west side of Saint John, New Brunswick.

It is reported that:

On Thursday, March 13, 2025, at approximately 3:30 p.m., patrol officers responded to a request for a well-being check at a residence.

On arrival, police were able to make entry into the home and located three deceased adults. Forensic Identification Services and the Coroner were called to the scene to investigate. The deceased were transported to the hospital where autopsies will be scheduled.

Currently, there is no evidence present that indicates the deaths were criminal in nature.

Next of Kin have been notified and the Saint John Police sends our condolences to the families and friends of the three deceased at this most difficult time.
