File: 24-3947 and 24-3945

The Saint John Police have arrested three individuals in connection with a threats and mischief investigation.

It is alleged that:

On Wednesday, June 05, 2024, at 12:30 a.m., Saint John Police officers responded to the 100-block of Maclaren Blvd in relation to a call of two males and a female threatening individuals in the area and attempting to damage windows.

One of the males had broken a window before leaving the scene.

As the suspects were leaving the scene a physical altercation began between one of the youths and a female that was in the area. During this altercation the mother of the female intervened and was assaulted with a chemical irritant.

Police officers arrived in the area and took one man and two youths into custody.

An 18-year-old man is being held for court on charges for failing to comply with an undertaking and possession of a weapon (x2). He is scheduled to appear on June 05, 2024.

A 17-year-old youth is being held for court on charges for mischief, possession of a weapons, resisting arrest and assault PO (x2). He is scheduled to appear on June 05, 2024.

A 15-year-old youth was released on an undertaking to appear in court on August 21, 2024.

The police would like to thank the public for their assistance.
